

CATENA ZAPATA

Las uvas para la elaboración de los vinos Catena Zapata provienen de una meticulosa selección de las hileras históricas de los mejores viñedos de la Familia Catena. Las plantas que conforman dichas hileras reciben un cuidado especial y producen rendimientos extremadamente bajos. Estos vinos se elaboran en cantidades limitadas.

Catena Zapata wines are made from a meticulous vine selection from the best, historic rows of the Catena Zapata Family Estate Vineyards. These Zapata vines are carefully hand-tended and produce extremely low yields. These wines are made in very limited quantities.
